MICHIGAN STATE POLICE

TROOPER INJURED ON I-75 NEAR DIXIE HIGHWAY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

August 28, 2015

TAYLOR. The Michigan State Police (MSP) is confirming that Tpr. Chad Wolf of the MSP Second District, Special Enforcement Section, Motor Unit was struck while on patrol this morning on northbound I-75 near Dixie Highway in Springfield Township, Oakland County. Wolf has been transported to the hospital.

"We ask that you please keep Trooper Wolf and his family in your thoughts and prayers," stated Col. Kriste Kibbey Etue, director of the MSP.

The involved driver has been identified and is cooperating with police. The MSP is conducting a full investigation into this matter.

Wolf enlisted with the MSP in 2008. He has served at the Jackson, Flint and Metro posts.
